

Polish Congress Ambassadors 2021

2021-08-10

On 18 June 2021 the Polish Congress Ambassadors Programme Chapter chose 9 new outstanding celebrities representing scientific and business circles to join the group of Honorary Polish Congress Ambassadors, among which two had been proposed by Kraków Convention Bureau! So far, the title of the Congress Ambassador has been awarded to over 250 persons, including over 60 from Krakow and the Małopolska Region.

The title of the Honorary Polish Congress Ambassador from Krakow has been awarded to: Dr. n. med. Barbara Jasiewicz, Department of Orthopaedics, Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation Clinic of Jagiellonian University Collegium Medicum in Zakopane, and Dr. inż. Piotr Bielaczyc, Bosmal Automotive Research and Development Institute in Bielsko-Biała. The meeting with the winners of the 2020 and 2021 edition will be held and diplomas of recognition will be awarded during the ceremonial Gala of Polish Congress Ambassadors, which will take place in the autumn-winter season in Gdynia.

The Congress Ambassadors Programme is conducted jointly by the Polish Tourism Organisation and non-governmental Polish Conference and Congress Association, and aims at honouring people who, with great commitment, win new congresses for Poland. While representing our country in various international structures, Congress Ambassadors use their extensive and significant contacts to promote our country, its culture, and its scientific achievements.

As a result of the discussion and voting by the Chapter, 9 eminent persons joined the group of Honorary Polish Congress Ambassadors:

0. Dr. inż. Piotr Bielaczyc, Bosmal Automotive Research and Development Institute (Bielsko-Biała);
