

An aerial photograph of Kraków, Poland, taken during the "golden hour" of sunset. The sky is a mix of soft pinks, oranges, and blues. The city's dense architecture, including numerous red-tiled roofs and historic buildings, is visible. The Vistula River winds through the middle ground. In the foreground, the large, open Market Square (Rynek Główny) is filled with people and illuminated by streetlights. The text "Kraków the host city" is overlaid in white on the right side of the image.

Accompanying letter from Mayor of Kraków

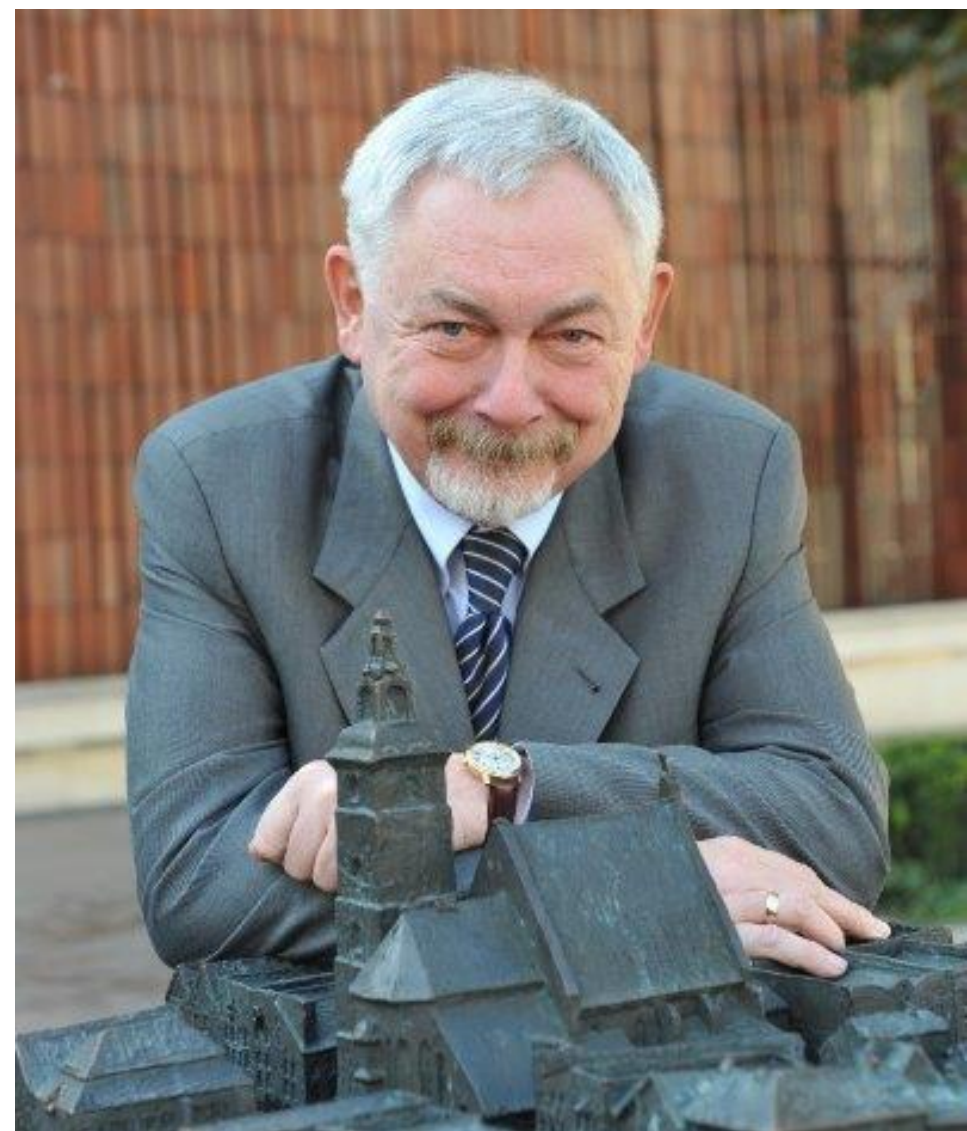

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen

Kraków is among few historical towns in Europe which, even if visited only briefly, leave unforgettable impressions. The town constitutes a permanent part of all Poles as a symbol of Polish national identity. Over the centuries, Kraków's Main Market Square, the Cloth Hall, St. Mary's Basilica and the Wawel Castle, as well the local squares, interiors and gardens surrounding palaces, cloisters and houses have witnessed many exceptional events in the nation's history.

In Kraków, past and present blend harmoniously and the rich artistic, cultural and business scenes complement innovation and continuous development. Multiple conferences organized locally become platforms for the exchange of information and ideas, a source of inspiration, spaces where one opens up to others.

With this offer, we wish to showcase local venues which are uniquely suited to hosting meetings and business events. The selected venues boast distinctive atmosphere and offer gourmet experiences, as well as state of the art multimedia infrastructure and professional services.

Jacek Majchrowski
Mayor of Kraków

Introducing Kraków

Kraków is one of the best recognizable cities in this part of Europe, a favourite destination of individual and group trips.

In recent years, Kraków has become a city of ever increasing innovative and creative initiatives in various fields. Until recently, it attracted visitors with its legend: a treasure trove of Polish heritage, European Capital of Culture, a city full of events and unique collections, a city organizing excellent festivals. These advantages were complemented with purely economic or even business arguments: Today, Kraków is a place where it is not only worth holding a business meeting or a congress, but now, according to current trends, a business meeting in Kraków is a must.

New congress centers and original interiors of historic buildings can provide services and add the appropriate prestige to each event. Kraków also owes this ability to its friendly and the professional hotel, catering, entertainment and cultural infrastructure which is clustered near the centre and the proximity of Małopolska attractions, offering numerous opportunities for active recreation and unforgettable scenery.

Currently, Kraków is the artistic and intellectual centre of southern Poland, and one of the most popular tourist spot in Europe. 14 million guests visited Kraków in 2019. Kraków's main Market Square – the largest mediaeval square in Europe – has always been the heart of the city, vibrant with life throughout the year. It is a favorite meeting place for locals, students, tourists, and businesspeople. The 47 tenement buildings surrounding the square house numerous cafés, restaurants, pubs, galleries, shops, bookstores, and museums. The passage of time is marked by the bugle call played every hour on the hour from the top of the taller tower of St. Mary's Basilica – the only musical signal in the world sounded regularly for six centuries. The most distinctive buildings in the Rynek Główny are St. Mary's Basilica, with its imposing Gothic altar, and Sukiennice (Cloth Hall) – the best preserved cloth market in Europe.

Why Kraków

› Dynamic

Modern Kraków is vibrant city, with 1 million inhabitants.

› Science

22 institutions of higher education operated in Kraków. Total enrolment of approx. 160,000 students, over 57 000 graduates. Kraków's Jagiellonian University, the oldest in Poland, founded in 1364, where Nicolaus Copernicus studied medicine, connects Eastern and Western parts of common European scientific heritage.

› Business

6th place in the world as per Tholons ranking "Top 100 super cities". Kraków is one of the largest outsourcing centres worldwide with over 170 foreign corporations. (Tholons Services Globalisation Index 2018). According to ASPIRE, the companies in this sector have already invested 2.7 billion dollars in Kraków, creating 76.000 new jobs in the process. The city is one of the main hubs for start-ups in Poland.

› Heritage

Kraków is a magnificent, old city, historical capital of Poland, with UNESCO-listed Old Town, famous museums with Da Vinci's and Rembrandt's masterpieces. Wawel castle – the former seat of Poland's kings and the Kraków Old Town, alongside the Kazimierz district, were selected for the origin UNESCO World Heritage List, created in 1978. At the time, this honor was awarded to just 12 sites around globe.

Małopolska region is a real treasure of UNESCO, with 14 of the 27 sites on the World Heritage List in Poland located in the region. Other locations include the Salt Mine in Wieliczka, the oldest salt mine in the world, located 12 kilometers south of Kraków. The Auschwitz-Birkenau Nazis concentration camp in Oświęcim was recognized as a UNESCO site in 1979. Kraków and the Małopolska region are a treasure trove of ideas for organizers of motivational and integration events.

› Culture

Kraków is Poland's capital of culture. The city can boast the best museums in the country and some best theaters. It has a number of Poland's top writers, painters, and musicians among its residents. No wonder Kraków was named a European City of Culture in 2000, and since 2013 UNESCO has proclaimed Kraków the City of Literature. In addition, this year Kraków was awarded the title of European Capital of Gastronomic Culture 2019.

› Great Premium Events

10 new large-format festivals from all fields of culture: music, literary, visual arts, opera, theatre, photo month. Additionally, Kraków has about 100 regular cyclical events of a festival nature, which attracts around 200,000 participants.

Transportation

By Air

There are two airports near Kraków:
in Balice Kraków Airport and in Pyrzowice Katowice Airport.

› Kraków Airport

The international Kraków Airport is the country's second in terms of both size and number of passengers (6 million passengers in 2018).

Kraków Airport offers many convenient, direct airline connections with major destinations, such as: Berlin, Brussels, Copenhagen, Frankfurt, London, Madrid, Milan, Moscow, Munich, Oslo, Paris, Rome, Stockholm, Vienna, Zurich, Warsaw, Chicago or Dubai. Many destinations are offered by low-cost airlines: Ryanair, and EasyJet.

It's in total over 110 flights to 28 countries. What's more, the airport is well connected to the city centre, which is only 12 km (20 min.) away. There is a fast train service from the airport to the city centre.

› Katowice Airport

In 2018, 4,388,149 passengers used the airport in Katowice. Katowice Airport belongs to the group of the largest regional airports in Poland. The airport is the national leader in the charter and regional transport segment in cargo. It is anticipated that in 2019, for the first time in history, over 5 million passengers will be served during the calendar year. The network of regular, charter and cargo connections Katowice Airport will cover over 130 routes in the peak season, to 39 countries.

The airport is located approx. 110 km west of Kraków.

Transportation

By Road

Through Kraków or its surroundings lead two major routes: national road No. 7 from north to south, part of the European route E77, and the A4 motorway, part of the European route E40, which provides quick and convenient connections with Czechia, Slovakia, Germany, and Ukraine.

By Train

The main railway station is in the city centre, only about 10 minutes walk from the Main Market Square. Ticket offices are open 24 hours a day. From the Central Station, most cities in the region and the country can easily be reached by rail. Kraków also offers rail links to Germany, Austria, The Czech Republic, Hungary, Slovakia and Ukraine.

Transportation

Public transportation within the city

The city is famous for its well-organised public transport network and its constantly extended and modernized infrastructure.

In Kraków, there are many tram and bus lines, enabling smooth transport around the city and outside its limits (e.g. to Wieliczka). Often, especially in the city centre, it is worth ditching the car in favour of public transport.

Special discounts for events organizers

Kraków Convention Bureau has an agreement with the Public Transport Company and offers discounts for congress organizers.

Cuisine

Kraków plays a crucial role on the culinary stage of Poland, where traditional Polish cuisine meets global influences. The 2018 Michelin Guide recommends 26 restaurants. As we all know, the way to someone's heart is through their stomach, and Kraków's culinary fandom keeps growing. If this is not enough, Kraków is selected the 2019 European Capital of Gastronomy Culture, among Polish gourmets that are protected by European Union 10 are from Małopolska Region. The title was awarded for the first time by the European Academy of Gastronomy.

What should you see in Kraków? The options are virtually limitless. There are must-see locations in all districts.

The Medieval and Renaissance buildings of the Old Town, Kazimierz the Jewish district, Stare Podgórze are just some of the great places in Kraków.

Kraków is also a city of churches – there are over 120, including many ancient buildings. It is best to prepare your own sightseeing route to make sure you do not miss anything interesting.

Main Market Square

Huge 10-acre square, the largest among Europe's medieval cities, features the 16th-century Renaissance Cloth Hall and the splendid 14th-century Gothic Basilica of the Virgin Mary.

The all-time centre of Kraków, full of cafes, pubs, clubs and restaurants. A must see in Kraków.

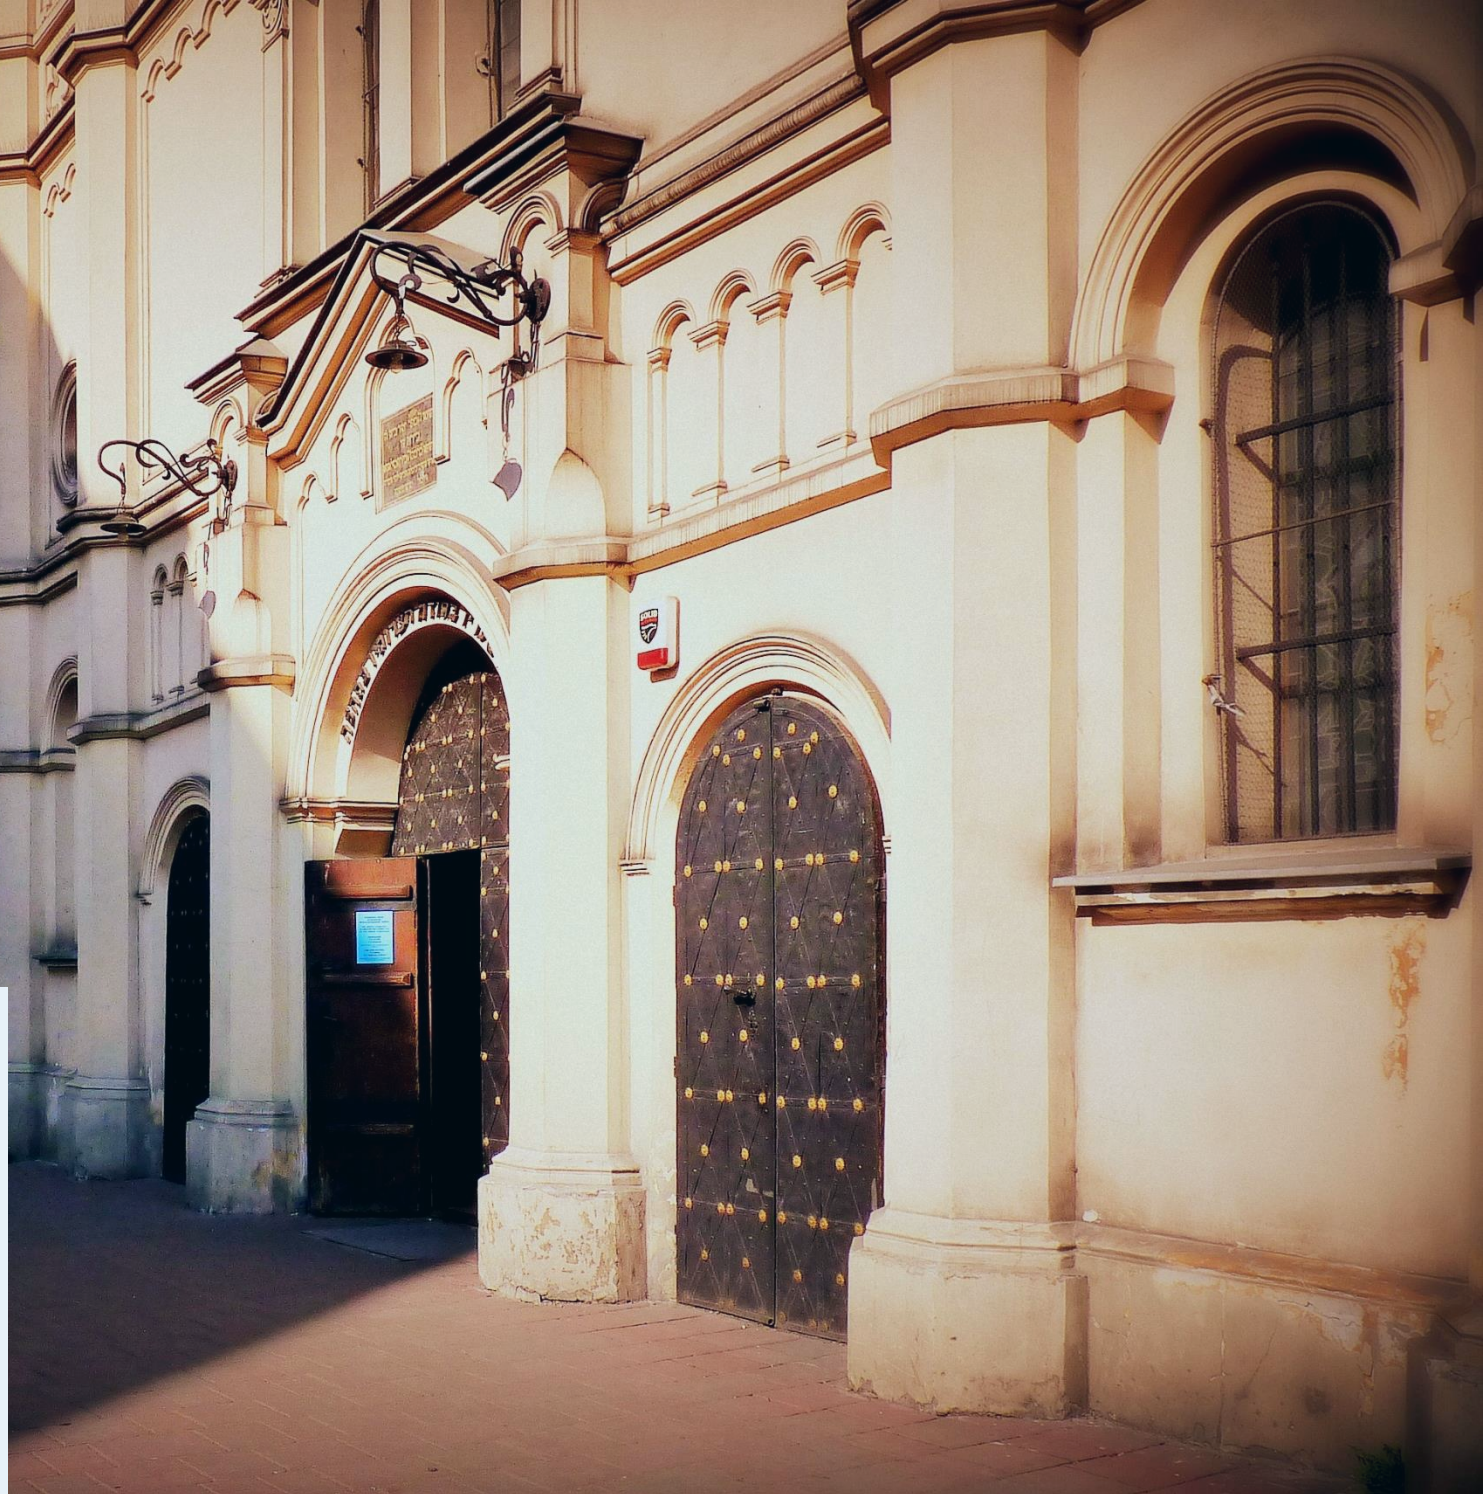

The Wawel Hill and the Royal Castle

The steep and lofty limestone hill boasts the most beautiful Polish castle. It features magnificent architecture with structures dating back even to late 10th century, a magnificent Cathedral, astonishing renaissance residence part and numerous other attractions among which you can find Leonardo Da Vinci's Lady With an Ermine guarantee unforgettable experience.

Kazimierz district

Kazimierz became known as the Jewish quarter in the late 15th Century when King Jan I Olbracht transferred all Jews living in Kraków to live in one area. The narrow streets lead you through one of Kraków's most unique districts. Take a look inside the Old Jewish Cemetery in the Remuh Synagogue and pause to reflect of the atrocities of the holocaust at the memorial of the Kraków Ghetto on the Plac Bohaterów Getta.

Nowa Huta district

Nowa Huta district was a gift from the Soviet nation to the Poles with enormous metallurgical complex created by Stalin decree. Nowa Huta complex was developed in the 1950's as a modern industrial town autonomous of Kraków and opposite to it as a town without churches and without God.

Wieliczka Salt Mine

Wieliczka Salt Mine is one of the few mines in the world which have been continuously operating since the Middle Ages until the present day – is visited by approx. one million of visitors from all over the world every year. The underground over 2-km long Tourist Route is situated at depths ranging from 64 to 135 meters and leads through over 20 of the most beautiful chambers where excavations and rock formations. In 1978, the mine was included in the UNESCO'S first World Heritage List.

Auschwitz-Birkenau

Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration camp. KL Auschwitz – in the years 1940–1945, the biggest Nazi concentration and death camp in occupied Europe. Situated at a distance of 70 km from Kraków in the town of Oświęcim. The Auschwitz Memorial Museum was included in the UNESCO's World Heritage List in 1979.

Zakopane

The city at the foot of the Tatra Mountains, has been called the winter capital of Poland. However, tourists are not only attracted here in winter – lots of hikers arrive here.

Kraków Convention Bureau (KCB) has been operating since 2004 within the Municipality of Kraków on a non-profit basis. It currently operates as part of the Department of Tourism dedicated to promotion of Kraków as a business tourism destination.
